Présentation de l'éditeur

With this 2017 calendar from The Metropolitan Museum of Art, celebrate the beloved blue-and-white design motif all year long with a range of media, eras, and locations from ceramics to textiles, from medieval ages to modern day, from China to Europe and everywhere in between. Each month features an extreme close-up of a different blue-and-white work showing the intricate pattern or design and the material used, accompanied by an image of the full work and a detailed caption. Biographie de l'auteur

The Metropolitan Museum of Art is the largest museum in the Western Hemisphere and the world's most encyclopedic art museum. Founded in 1870, its permanent collection, housed in 17 curatorial departments, comprises more than 2 million works of art spanning 5,000 years of world culture, from prehistory to the present, from every part of the globe, in all artistic media, and at the highest levels of creative excellence.
